

JOY M. HUTTON MAKES HER TELEVISION DEBUT ON SEASON THREE OF OWN'S "READY TO LOVE"

Hutton is a Transparent Divorcee who Represents Old School Values, Style, Grace and Big Hair throughout the Show's Anticipated Season

Houston, TX - Joy M. Hutton, known for her savvy business acumen, has entered new territory as a cast member of the Oprah Winfrey Network's third season of "Ready to Love". The show places 20 middle-aged, mature men and women in one confined location to see if they are truly ready to find love. Joy, 38, joined the cast with high hopes and the best intentions. While she was initially reluctant, she ultimately chose to set her fears aside and take a chance. Viewers can expect to get hooked on the energy of Joy and her fellow cast mates as they embark on this journey of self-discovery and ultimately, new found love. Season three of "Ready to Love" kicks off on Friday, October 23 at 9pm/8pm CST on OWN.

Joy M. Hutton, a Houstonian by way of Chicago, has made a name for herself as a successful business consultant. In addition, she is the creator of On the Go Glam, a new beauty platform that enables glam professionals to come to you on demand. In the midst of all of these things happening, dating wasn't necessarily on the top of the list. "When I got the call for 'Ready to Love', I was surprised and instantly began to doubt what has turned out to be an amazing experience," says Joy. "Dating after divorce requires a lot of internal evaluation and makes the process a bit more sensitive. But I chose to give it my best shot because I do believe I am worthy of genuine love and happiness."

"Ready to Love" is from the creative mind of Will Packer, one of Hollywood's most influential producers. The show is hosted by Thomas "Nephew Tommy" Miles, a nationally syndicated radio personality, actor and comedian. The show debuted in 2018 and has resulted in several successful relationships and marriages. Learn more about "Ready to Love" and get to know Joy a little better.
